Chapter 1. The Relativity of Success

1. In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Six days of wonders and wisdom, and on the 7th day God rested from all His work.
2. The first step to success is always your willingness to participate.
3. Endure the school of hard knocks and setbacks, till you succeed with honors.
4. Be content with what you have, when what you have is sufficient.
5. Men of action often find obscured opportunities concealed from the masses.
6. Excuses are just another brick in the wall that needs to be demolished.
7. Shape your body, sharpen your mind; but neglect your soul and all be lost.
8. Plan and pace yourself, for success seldom comes by overnight express.
9. Renowned men are known for their service, while men of vain glory remain empty.
10. It appears as if nice guys always finish last, until you realize that they run in a race of their own.
11. Until opportunity knocks, be proactive in time management and quality control.
12. Education, opportunity and ability separate men from the crowds, but there are some who by faith in God will achieve extraordinary things in this life.
13. Push on, for who knows when you're appointed time of success will be?
14. Potential and opportunity are often so blindingly obvious!

15. No numerous amount of failure can ever outweigh the success of a single discovery, that brings light and hope to millions around the world.
16. Plans and preparation is no guarantee for success, but it does minimize risk of failure and at the same time, maximize your potential to win.
17. Seek expert help before giving up and even then against all hope, in hope believe till you overcome and find the way.
18. You shall not covet your neighbor's house, car, spouse, position or belongings.
19. Challenges are trivial, when your eyes are like a flint on the prize.
20. May you succeed in all your endeavors, whether written in the stars or not.
21. Better to be of a humble spirit with the lowly than to divide spoil with the proud.
22. Settling for second best illuminates you for from winning top prize.
23. He who is faithful over little things will end up ruling over much.
24. Risks are worth taking when the rewards are greater than the giants.
25. Everything is possible when nothing becomes impossible.
26. Value yourself not by achievements, but rather in your contribution.
27. Excuses will not stop the dedicated from achieving plausible results.
28. Even when you think you are doing great on your own, the return on a fruitful partnership can be significantly greater.

29. Love is ultimately superior to riches, power, beauty and success.
30. Act on your knowledge, and you will be healthier and wealthier than many, who heard the same thing repeatedly and did nothing about it.
31. Divide and conquer or alter the pace and style of the game, that favors you best over that of your opponent.
32. Crowds will only pursue what they perceive to be possible. If they can't see it, they won't go after it.
33. If opportunity ain't knocking, go out and look for it, or create your own.
34. Better to have an "it is possible" approach, than a "sorry, can't do" mindset.
35. Connected to your God-given talent are honor, wealth and power.
36. You see potential in others, but fail in recognizing your own.
37. "Why didn't I think of that?" Maybe you did, but never acted on it!
38. Solutions eventually will always be significantly greater than your stresses and fears.
39. Assumptions are a misconception that planning and preparation are a waste of time and money.
40. Practice increases potential, to perform at your best.
41. Better to live a significant life, than to enjoy the illusions of success.
42. Sometimes you have to make decisions, not knowing the outcome.
43. What you can do must surface, less you are vampired by what you can't do.

44. Accomplishment is often more rewarding than the reward itself.
45. The law of attraction is ineffective without the law of action.
46. Things get done, when excuses cease.
47. There are things money can't buy, and things power cannot conquer.
48. Not every opportunity that comes your way is for you.
49. When you face an uphill battle, climb all the way to the top.
50. Playing off-sides disqualifies anyone to strike at goal.
51. Perform in such a way that it will cost your competitors too much to compete at the same level.
52. Seeing the big picture makes small sacrifices justifiable.
53. The cost of pursuing fame and fortune could be your priceless soul.
54. To go anywhere, you have to start somewhere.
55. The man who keeps walking will always reach his destination.
56. Hidden inside you might be a key that will unlock doors shut to the masses, but the only key that will unlock all doors in your life is the Masters key.
57. Who knows how far you will go if you will just start to do something?
58. Most misfortunes are but temporary inconveniences, not life sentences.

59. Against all odds, press on and finished better than expected.
60. Every purpose is established by counsel. The wise has many advisers.
61. Make that deal; fear may stop you, but hope gives courage.
62. No matter what you do, it will not be without risk.
63. Patience prevails where strength fails.
64. Go to the ant you sluggard, consider her ways and be wise.
65. The elevator of success may be the stairs no one else wants to take.
66. Small beginnings promise good prospects for those who persevere.
67. By humility and the fear of the Lord are riches, and honor, and life.
68. Adding passion to purpose turns monuments into living stones.
69. You must bear your own cross before wearing the crown of life.
70. Failure is a spirit that will fail in the face of persistent faith.
71. Whatever the matter, whoever the messenger, let God have the final say.
72. Better to step down and keep your balance, than to step up and fall from a dizzy height.
73. Finish the things left undone and reap the rewards it contains.
74. Daily disciplines are foundational steps on the ladder of success.

75. When it feels as if a force is preventing you, then are you in need of prayer, patience and perseverance to overcome that beast.
76. For best results, follow the prescribed prescription, meticulously.
77. Be successful in expressing your own uniqueness and style.
78. Fools rush in and get to the top of the wrong ladder first.
79. Carve your own destiny, and you will succeed.
80. Achievements open many doors but Heaven's Gates.
81. What shall it profit a man to gain the whole world yet loses his soul?
82. The road to success without God will take you to Fool's Paradise.
83. In the jungle of traditions only the fittest survive, but in a world full of "elevators", it's anyone's game.
84. The pursuit of success is not a goal, but a distraction from your purpose.
85. Concluding, read your bible: after all, it is by God's word that everything seen and unseen were created.

Chapter 2. A Mind Make-Over

1. If it is all in the mind, then change your thinking.
2. "I can't" and "it's impossible" limits creativity and restricts movement.
3. Thoughts do not attract material things, but your action will.
4. You will do nothing, until your mind admits that something is possible.
5. Let the wicked forsake his own way, and the unrighteous his thoughts.
6. The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the Lord. Change your thoughts.
7. A double minded man is unstable in all his ways. So make up your mind.
8. Anyone who thinks, will always use, more than 10 percent of their brain.
9. It can't be done - until someone thinks he can.
10. Everything noteworthy began with a simple idea, acted upon.
11. The more you develop your ideas, the better they turn out in the end.
12. Thoughts can affect your mental and physical health: so mind your thoughts.
13. Better to be narrow-minded and enter the narrow gates of heaven, than to be broad-minded and go through the wide gates of hell.

Chapter 3. Don't You Dare

1. Don't you dare giving up, not knowing how close you actually are.
2. Don't you dare let someone else's opinion, decide your fate.
3. Don't you dare live life as if tomorrow doesn't matter.
4. Don't you dare believe everything without careful examination.
5. Don't you dare get ripped off in giving money to get more money.
6. Don't you dare being fooled by greed email offering you money for nothing scams.
7. Don't you dare be so materialistic, that you end up spiritually bankrupt.
8. Don't you dare quit in the face of opposition, on your way to victory.
9. Don't you dare endorse lies by punishing the truth.
10. Don't you dare give in to claims of urgency or loss of opportunity, which deceives men into buying or selling.
11. Don't you dare be spoiled through man's philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

Chapter 4. Dreams Come True

1. Everyone has dreams, but only a few believe in it enough, to take action.
2. What you dream about today can be tomorrow's reality.
3. A dream can make a poor man rich and the rich even richer.
4. Daydreams won't pay the bills until action, proves your dreams' worth.
5. Your dream can make you financially secure if you wake up and work it.
6. Protect and nurture your dream less it fades off into obscurity.
7. Mind the many detours, on your way to realizing your dazzling dreams.
8. Before their dream took flight, the Wright brothers were building bicycles.
9. Overcoming setbacks, roadblocks, red-tape and obstacles is for dreamers.
10. Have the courage to follow your dream and the stamina to finish well.
11. Who lied to you and told you, it is not possible?
12. Dare to dream, dare to believe and dare to hope, for nothing shall be impossible to him who believe.

Chapter 5. Change to Win

1. Write your vision down and make it plain for all to see and run with it.
2. Making a U-Turn and not just switching lanes, is often the change much needed.
3. People often change their mind, some for good and others for evil.
4. Your obedience to the truth will change the lives of countless others.
5. Not all change is necessary good or bad, but it is necessary.
6. Mistakes are not fatal unless you refuse to change.
7. Imagination is free, but the cost of materializing your ideas has its price.
8. Disregarded concepts of the past, could be the solutions of the future.
9. Truth is a lighthouse of hope in the turbulent world of rapid change.
10. When change challenge ancient laws and values to the point of self-destruction, it becomes obligatory for the common good of all, to guard those sound foundations.
11. No matter what, stick to your decision, and do not look back, for what is ahead of you is far better than what lies behind you.
12. The most important change you will ever make is to change your ways and turn back to the living God.
13. So much advise so little action.

Chapter 6. The Big Question

Congratulations friend, you successfully completed reading this book. Now, let me ask you the big question, which completely changed my life?

Are you Born Again? You see Jesus said "unless a man be Born Again, he cannot see the kingdom of God". Why?

For it is written "All have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God, and the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God, is eternal life through faith in Jesus Christ.

Two thieves were crucified with Christ. One cursed and mocked Christ, but the other one cried "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom". He was instantly forgiven when Jesus said "today, you will be with me in paradise".

Which one will you be? The one who repented, believed and is in paradise, or his partner in crime who through stubborn unbelief perished in his sin, lost in hell forever?

If you believe then cry out; "Jesus, i believe that you are the only begotten son of God who came to take away the sin of the world. Take away my sin right now and save me. I believe you died on that cross and that you rose again from the grave. Come into my heart, i pray. Thank you for saving me and giving me eternal life. I believe in you Jesus with all my heart and praise your holy name.

Friend, can you feel the change? Jesus said "your sins are forgiven you". You are now clean, washed in the Blood of the Lamb, and Born Again, saved by the love and grace of God.

Welcome into the family of God. You are precious in His eyes. Keep and protect your faith, for it is so precious, and has many rewards in the end. The just shall live by faith.

Go tell someone, read your Bible and pray every day. Go to church and obey God's Word.

Chapter 7. Partner with Me

Partner with me in the preaching and spreading God's love and forgiveness through faith in Jesus Christ to all men who will believe unto eternal life.

Pray and intercede, with supplication and giving thanks, for all partners, friends and myself in accordance with God promise and prophecies, to be found in Him at His Appearing.
